TTC Fundraiser

In May, a team of dedicated ASAAP volunteers, board members, and staff put together an outstanding combination outreach and fundraiser inside the TTC subway system. The group brought together a passion for the agency and a long held desire to sell bamboo shoots.

Their success was in calling out to passersby and raising a healthy amount of money for ASAAP.

The time has come to repeat this feat by being out at FOUR stations this time and not a mere THREE.

Join us on this smashing adventure by coming out with us on Friday November 28, 2008. This time, our four stations are Queen's Park, Yonge/Eglinton, Yonge/Bloor and Queen and we will be selling EVEN MORE bamboo shoots, since last time we SOLD OUT. As this is such a team effort, it would be a smash to have as many of you there as possible. You will be with at least one staff or board member. The day lasts from 10:30-5:30. Anytime in a block that you can help out would be MUCH appreciated. Please e-mail me or Aalia at education@asaap.ca to sign up!

Besharam- Testing Sexpertise

An ASAAP special event is coming to next month's Besharam! We are excited to present an evening devoted to promoting our brownkiss.ca website through some fun (but educational) sexual health games. Join Aalia and Vijay as they hilariously host this game show Fri. Nov. 7 from 9-midnight.

They are in need of 2 male and 2 female volunteers to make this event run smoothly. Don't miss a great opportunity to party WHILE supporting your favourite South Asian agency!

ASAAP Pride Committee

Pride planning is a year-round event

It may appear as though we just celebrated our Pride with an amazing float and fabulous party, but as the green writing says, the planning never stops.

Our wonderful Tamil Outreach Coordinator, Siva, is gearing up for next year's Pride and is gauging interest in our Pride 2009 Committee. As we had so many of you outstanding volunteers work on Pride 2008, we are hoping for more of the same next year!

Please contact Siva at tamil.outreach@asaap.ca for details and to begin planning an introductory meeting.
